Dear Herb:

I always have trouble thanking people orally for things and so I have to write you this note to let you know how grateful I am for the fine job which you did in the '48 Camp. I want you to know that I am aware of the fact that this summer's nature study program was the best of any camp I have run. Further, it was a great relief not to have to worry about the physical aspects of the pool. I still don't know how you found the time to carry on teaching in the summer school as well as all this other work. At any rate, I want you to know that I am deeply grateful for your many important contributions to what I am sure was Park's best summer camp.

Most of all, I want you to know that I value the friendship between us which, born in the service, surely matured in our years of working together.

Most sincerely,

T. W. Van Arsdale, Jr.
