

FOR THE RECORD

A roundup of the week Aug. 4-10

Compiled by JAMES E. REYNOLDS

BOXING—CARLOS DeLEON of Puerto Rico retained his WBC cruiserweight title with an eighth-round TKO of Michael Greer of the United States in Giardini Naxos, Italy. It was DeLeon's 34th victory against four losses in his 12-year professional career.

DIVING—At the U.S. championships in Orlando, Fla., GREG LOUGANIS swept the competition, winning the one-meter, the three-meter and the platform events. It was the fifth straight time Louganis has won all three events at a national meet and raised his total of national titles to 40. In the women's division, MEGAN NEYER won the one-meter and three-meter springboard events, and defending champion MICHELE MITCHELL won the platform event.

GOLF—BOB TWAY defeated Greg Norman by two strokes to win $140,000 and the PGA championship in Toledo. Tway's total of 276 was 8 under par (page 20).

BETSY KING made par on the second hole of a sudden-death playoff to beat JoAnne Carner by one stroke to win $34,500 and an LPGA tournament in High Point, N.C. King had an opportunity to win the tournament in regulation, but her 10-foot putt for a birdie on the 18th hole went left of the cup. Both golfers finished regulation with 11-under-par 277s.

CHI CHI RODRIGUEZ sank a five-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a one-stroke victory over Gary Player to win $30,000 and a PGA seniors tournament in Concord, Mass. His three-round total was a 13-under-par 203.

HARNESS RACING—BARBERRY SPUR ($2.60), driven by Dick Stillings, beat Tyler's Mark by a head to win the Adios Pace and $116,725 in Meadowlands, Pa. The 3-year-old colt paced the mile in the championship race-off in 1:53½ around the five-eighths-of-a-mile track, setting a world record for two heats by 3-year-old pacers with a combined time of 3:46½. The previous mark of 3:47.3 was set by Storm Damage in the 1980 Adios.

HORSE RACING—CLASSY CATHY ($7), ridden by Earlie Fires, defeated Valley Victory by a neck to win $138,720 and the Alabama Stakes at Saratoga. The 3-year-old filly ran the 1¼ miles in 2:04½.

BET TWICE ($9.40), Chris Antley up, beat overwhelming favorite Faster Than Sound by 2½ lengths to win $120,000 and the Sapling Stakes. The 2-year-old colt ran the six-furlong Monmouth Park course in 1:10½.

EXCLUSIVE PARTNER ($19), Jorge Velasquez up, edged I'm A Banker by a neck to win the Bernard Baruch Handicap and $82,200 at Saratoga. The 4-year-old colt ran the 1¼ miles in 1:50½.

MOTOR SPORTS—AL UNSER JR. outraced Bill Elliot by half a length to win $6,300 and an International Race of Champions X event in Watkins Glen, N.Y. Unser, driving a Z-28 Chevrolet Camaro, as were all the drivers, averaged 109.078 mph around a 2.4-mile road circuit in the 30-lap race. Unser also finished first in the IROC X final standings with 62 points, while Elliot was second with 59 and Cale Yarborough third with 57. As champion of the IROC X series, Unser earned $164,100, including a $150,000 final standings bonus.

TIM RICHMOND beat Darrell Waltrip by 1.45 seconds to win $50,955 and a NASCAR race in Watkins Glen. Richmond, driving a Chevrolet Monte Carlo SS, averaged 90.464 mph in the 218.5-mile race. It was the first stock car race held at Watkins Glen International since 1965.

NELSON PIQUET defeated his fellow Brazilian Ayrton Senna da Silva by more than 17 seconds to win the Hungarian Grand Prix in Mogyorod. It was the first Formula One race ever held in a Soviet bloc country. Piquet, driving a Williams-Honda, finished the 190.665-mile race in 2:34.508 despite traction problems on the brand-new 2.508-mile Hungaroring circuit.

TENNIS—IVAN LENDL defeated Boris Becker 6-4, 7-6 to win $40,000 and a Grand Prix tournament in Stratton Mountain, Vt. Lendl swept all seven points in the final-set tiebreaker and beat Becker for the fifth time in seven meetings. In the semifinals, Lendl downed Jimmy Connors 6-4, 3-6, 6-2, and Becker edged John McEnroe 3-6, 7-5, 7-6 (page 14).

Sixth-seeded MILOSLAV MECIR of Czechoslovakia defeated second-seeded Andres Gomez of Ecuador 6-4, 4-6, 6-1, 2-6, 6-3 to win $24,000 and the Austrian Grand Prix tournament in Kitzbühel.

HELENA SUKOVA defeated Pam Shriver 6-2, 7-5 to win $45,000 and the Canadian Open in Montreal. The final was the fourth match in less than 24 hours for both players; Shriver, who had not lost a set all week, committed 14 unforced errors in the match.

TRACK & FIELD—INGRID KRISTIANSEN set a world record in the 5,000-meter race with a time of 14:37.33, at a meet in Stockholm. The old mark of 14:48.07 was set by Zola Budd in August 1985. Kristiansen now has the fastest times in all three long-distance events in women's track. She holds the record for the 10,000-meter (30:13.74), and she has the fastest clocking for the women's marathon (2:21:06), for which there is no official world record.

MILEPOSTS—HIRED: As head coach of the Indiana Pacers, JACK RAMSAY, 61, the former coach of the Portland Trail Blazers. In 18 NBA seasons with Philadelphia (1968-71), the old Buffalo Braves (1972-75) and Portland (1977-86), Ramsay has a 785-691 record, making him the league's winningest active coach and second only to former Boston Celtics coach Red Auerbach (938) on the alltime list.

RELEASED: By the New York Mets, outfielder GEORGE FOSTER, 37. After being traded by Cincinnati to New York in 1982, Foster hit .252 with 99 home runs in his 4½ years with the Mets. Foster has a .275 batting average, with 347 homers and 1,235 RBIs for his 17½-year career.

RE-SIGNED: By the Utah Jazz, guard DARRELL GRIFFITH, 28, to a six-year contract for an undisclosed salary.

TRADED: By the St. Louis Cardinals, catcher MIKE HEATH, 31, to the Detroit Tigers for minor league pitcher KEN HILL, 20, and a player to be named later.

By the New Jersey Nets, veteran guard DARWIN COOK, 28, to the Washington Bullets for an undisclosed amount of cash and for the Bullets' having foregone the selection of Dwayne (Pearl) Washington in last June's draft so the Nets could pick him.

DIED: CHUCK McKINLEY, 45, who won the men's singles title at Wimbledon in 1963 and the U.S. Open doubles title, with partner Dennis Ralston, in '61, '63 and '64; of a brain tumor; in Dallas. McKinley had been a member of the U.S. Davis Cup team from 1960 to '65 and was inducted into the Tennis Hall of Fame last year.

HERBERT MOLS, 71, who was the manager of the 1972 U.S. Olympic basketball team and one of the original organizers of New York's Empire State Games; of cardiopulmonary arrest; in Amherst, N.Y.

FACES IN THE CROWD

BIDDY PAULEY
GREENWICH, CONN.

Pauley, 48, a 5'4" 100-pounder, caught a 301-pound broadbill swordfish in the waters off Nantucket Island, Mass. Pauley, who has fished for 15 years, used an 80-pound-test line to land the fish after a battle of 1 hour, 32 minutes.

DAVID FITT
CHURCHVILLE, VA.

David, a 12-year-old second baseman and pitcher, batted .900 with 6 homers and 15 RBIs to lead Staunton to its second Babe Ruth Bambino state title in three years. He had a 2.900 slugging average in four tournament games.

SHANOA GRIFFIN
LOS ANGELES

Shanoa, 12, of the L.A. Jets Track and Field Club, set a TAC national record for Midget Girls (ages 11-12) in the 400 meters with a time of 57 seconds at a meet in Eugene, Ore. She anchored the winning 4 × 100 and 4 × 400 teams, also.

DEBBIE FULLER
MONTREAL

Fuller, a junior at the University of Florida, swept the one-meter, three-meter and platform diving events at the Canadian championships in Calgary. At the Commonwealth Games, she won gold in the three-meter and platform events.

AMY PETTENGILL
HAGAMAN, N.Y.

Pettengill, 23, had a 0.15 ERA and a 17-3 record to lead her Muddy's Too softball team to a first-place finish in the Troy WINS League. She pitched 12 shutouts and allowed only three earned runs during the season.

FORNEY BASSHAM
STOCKTON, CALIF.

Bassham, 57, a right-handed pitcher for Robertson Homes, a softball team in the Major Division, defeated Brannon Tire 4-3 for the 800th victory of his 34-year career. He has pitched 36 no-hitters, including 16 perfect games.
